Obituary

Mr. Chris. Bannick, farmer, 66 years of age, passed away on Saturday afternoon, April 30th, at the home of Mr. Chas. Diekau near Didsbury, Alta. His death was preceded by a lingering illness of internal cancerous nature. He came west to Didsbury about eighteen years ago and soon found employment with Mr. Chas. Diekau. This engagement was uninterrupted during the entire eighteen years except by several visits back to Ontario and other places of relative interest to Mr. Bannick. He was married at the age of thirty, to Miss Carrie Kuhry, who, only one year and a half later, preceded him in death.

He leaves only two family members (brothers) to mourn his departure; Menno in Yorkton, Sask. and Wm. C. in Elkton, Mich. Because of distance and other unavoidable hindrances, neither of the brothers were able to attend the funeral. Every detail however was most honorably and respectfully cared for by Mr. Diekau and family. The funeral service was held in Evangelical Church and was conducted by the pastor, H. E. Roppel, after which the interment took place at the Didsbury Cemetery.

Rugby Items.

Our spring-cleaning bee at Rugby school was quite a success as regards the amount of work accomplished, but we noticed that though the club was always well attended, only the 'faithful few' attended to the "clean-up." Where, oh! where was everybody else? This district is a remarkably busy one any time there is a little community work to be done at the school.

On Saturday last, Mrs. E. B. Parker entertained a few friends at tea, in honor of Mrs. and Miss Shannon, whom we are glad to welcome to our district. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, at the conclusion of which a most tempting lunch was served by our hostess.

PAY TRIBUTE TO BRITAIN FOR AID GIVEN IN CHINA

Vancouver. — Mail advices from Shanghai give details of the testimonials sent the British Government by the non-British residents of the big Oriental city as a tribute to the prompt action of Britain in sending troops to protect the settlement.

The text of the vote of thanks was as follows:

"We, the undersigned, non-British residents of Shanghai, wish to express our appreciation to His British Majesty's Government for the prompt and adequate measures taken for the defense of Shanghai. Though we realize that, quite naturally, the despatch of troops was primarily for the defense of its own nationals, and foreigners residing here, of whatever nationality, have benefitted equally. If the British troops had not arrived when they did, we should now all be in an extremely uncomfortable and dangerous position. If we had not actually been forced to leave the place. It is certain that the women and children would have had to be evacuated, and the settlement would probably have shared the fate of Hankow and Kluksiang.

"The opinion is heard freely expressed on all sides that Great Britain, by the courageous stand she has taken in this crisis, has again given the lead to the whole civilized world."

"Amplifying the above were the following expressions:

"The events of the last few days have brought home forcibly to all of us the immense value of the timely and adequate steps taken by the British Government for the protection of Shanghai. The mere fact of the arrival of the British forces has prevented an earlier outbreak of terrorism in the settlement itself.

"It has, for some time, been clear to most of us that but for the British troops we would not have been here today.

"Of whatever nationality or creed, we must admit that when others stood aloof, the British Government acted, in spite of all obstacles. We can know of the political struggles going on in nearly every country in the world today. We know that the British Government is daily harassed and criticized by forces at work to undermine and to destroy. These forces are at work everywhere, here and in our own respective countries.

"It is seldom that most of us out here find an opportunity of doing a good deed, but here is an excellent chance of adding our mite to a big cause; to silence, if but for a brief spell, the stupid braying of ignorance, cunningly employed by dangerous forces."

It is interesting to note that there were 2,350 signatures of members of 32 different nationalities.

Have Not Prepared Draft

May Extend Empire Settlement Agreement

New Features Likely to be Included in Proposed Extension

Ottawa. — An extension of the 3,000-family Empire settlement agreement is awaiting the consideration of Hon. Robert Forke, Minister of Immigration, in London, and it is possible that some new features will be included in the new agreement.

There are several new proposals respecting boy immigration which will be taken up with the British Government this summer. Mr. Forke will visit all the Immigration Department agencies in Great Britain, and will also visit the Scandinavian countries to confer with authorities there.

Prepare for Advance On Canton

Four Armies of Hankow Nationalists Ready for Attack Says Report

Canton, China. — The Hankow section of the Nationalists (Cantonese) is reported to be preparing for a general advance upon Canton with four armies.

The armies, it is said, will move through Hunan province, attacking Canton by way of the east and north rivers and utilizing the Red forces distributed in the districts en route.

Canton, important source of revenue and site of a large arsenal recently declared its independence of both the Hankow and Nanking Nationalist regimes. Later, however, the moderates rounded up the Reds after which the city nominally adhered to the Nanking section.

May Propose Abolition Of Large Submarines

Reported Intention of Britain at Three Power Naval Conference

Geneva. — With the preparatory disarmament commission disbanded, interest now centres on the three power naval conference between Great Britain, the United States and Japan, which is expected to open here about June 30, especially as reports have already circulated that Great Britain may propose abolition of large sea-going submarines.

In this connection, experts have pointed out the likelihood of the United States insisting on the use of these craft to maintain communications with distant possessions.

Statue of Laurier

Memorial of Parliament to be Erected at Ottawa

Ottawa. — A statue of "Sir" Wilfrid Laurier, the memorial authorized by Parliament to express the respect and veneration of the Canadian people for this statesman, is to be erected before July 1, near the southeast corner of the east block, facing Connaught Place from the sloping lawn of the terraced Parliament Hill.

The location is close to Wellington Street and the Chateau Laurier, and today four stakes mark the site of the concrete base which will be constructed immediately to carry the statue.

The statue itself is the work of Emile Brunel, of Montreal.

Not Seeking Prize

Paris. — Major Francois Coll, French aviator, said that he and his partner, Captain Nungesser, with whom he is planning a trans-Atlantic flight, are not competing for the $25,000 prize offered by Raymond Orteig for the first flight between New York and Paris. "Our only engagement is to try for a straight line non-stop flight record," Major Coll said.

To Be Tried As Spy

London. — Sitting at Old Bailey, the grand jury returned a true bill against Lieut. Commander Colin Mayers, retired British naval officer, who was arrested in March for alleged illegal possession of submarine plans. Commander Mayers will be tried on a charge of obtaining "certain plans, sketches, documents and information calculated to be useful to an enemy."

OFFER HINTS FOR CELEBRATION OF CANADA JUBILEE

Ottawa. — Ten thousand copies of a pamphlet containing general suggestions for the guidance of committees in charge of local celebrations have been sent to every organized municipality in Canada, to all members of Parliament and members of provincial legislatures, by the national committee for Jubilee celebration.

It is suggested that the mayor or reeve should call a public meeting to select a Jubilee committee. This committee would have charge of the program for July 1, 2 and 3, and would appoint sub-committees on various phases of the celebration. The pamphlet contains suggestions as to decorations, ceremonies and time for the events, with proposals regarding parades, school children, tableaux, veterans and militia, newcomers, old settlers, Indians, decorations of monuments etc.

The national committee encourages the main celebration for Friday July 1 with a sports program for Saturday and Thanksgiving service on Sunday.

Predicts Population Of Eight Billion

Total Number on Earth in 300 Years Says German Professor

New York. — Within 300 years the human race will reach a total population of 8,000,000,000 persons, the estimated capacity that can live on the earth's surface, says Professor Albrecht Penck, of the University of Berlin. He arrived on the Hamburg-American liner Cleveland to attend the bicentennial of the American Philosophical Society at Philadelphia. Asked what may occur when the earth's surface becomes congested with people, he said: "It passes the faculties of my imagination."

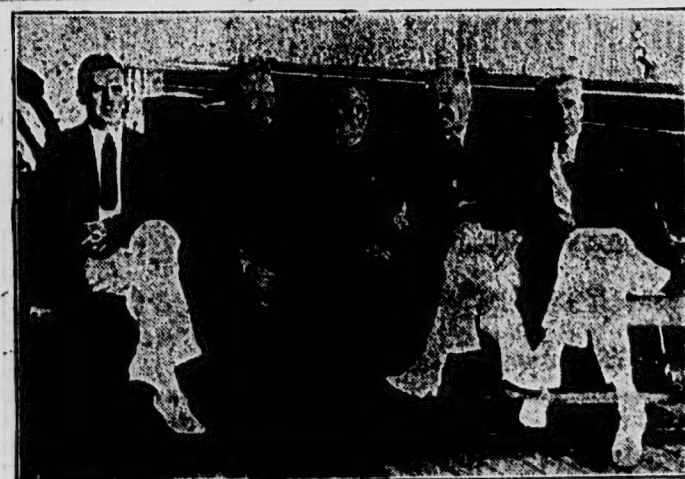

"Dud" Shell Kills Workman

Men Were Removing Debris From Famous Langemarch Field

Paris. — The casualty list of the World War was augmented by three deaths when a terrific explosion occurred on the scene of the famous battle ground, Langemarch, well known to Canadian soldiers. Two workmen engaged in the still unfinished task of clearing debris from the battlefields, while moving a giant unexploded shell found buried in the earth, somehow jarred the brass cap on its nose and were blown to bits in the blast that followed. Another workman standing thirty yards distant was struck by a shell fragment and died in hospital.

Plan Longest Non-Stop Rail Run

London. — Plans have now been completed for the new longest non-stop rail run in the world from London to Carnforth, in Lancashire, on the Euston-St. Pancras route. The run will be 236 miles—ten miles longer than the present longest non-stop run—on the G.W.R. from London to Plymouth.

Preparing for Long Trip

Two Parties of Mounted Police Leaving Soon for Far North

Regina. — Specially selected for physical qualifications and trained to the minute, two parties of Royal Canadian Mounted Policemen are making final arrangements at headquarters here for an early departure to the far North where they will be stationed for at least two years.

One party will sail from Vancouver in May, for service in the Yukon while the second will make a tremendous overland journey north of Edmonton, some of them designed to do patrol work at Herschel Island, the extreme Northwest of Canadian territory. The final disposition of the men will be made by those in charge of the northern posts.

Corporal T. Reddyhoff and Constables A. W. King and W. H. Maffett will go to the Yukon.

Ready to leave on the Arctic trip are Constables M. A. Couchman, W. S. Carter, R. J. Bell, T. G. Dinello and C. Ethier.

Summary for March Shows Substantial Advance Over March, 1926

Montreal. — Increases of $1,138,292, or 5.13 per cent. in gross earnings, and $71,680, or 1.65 per cent. in net earnings are shown by the operating summary for the Canadian National Railways during the month of March, 1927, as compared with March of last year. Working expenses during the period increased by $1,056,611, or 5.87 per cent., and the operating ratio for the month was 81.05 per cent., as against 80.4 per cent. in March, 1926.

For the first three months of the present calendar year, gross earnings of the Canadian National system are shown to be $62,512,461, an increase of $3,465,355, or 5.87 per cent. over the earnings for the corresponding period of 1926.

Cannot Use Word "Doctor"

Decision of Ontario Judge Regarding Chiropractors and Osteopaths

Toronto. — Osteopaths and chiropractors are debarred from using the word "doctor" as an occupational designation relating to the treatment of human ailments, in a decision handed down by Mr. Justice Middleton on a stated case submitted by J. Edmund Jones. His Lordship states the use of the word by those who are not registered surgeons or physicians under the Ontario Medical Act is held to be illegal.

Will Not Repeat Invitation

Geneva. — The League of Nations definitely decided, despite the recent settlement of a long standing controversy between Switzerland and Russia, not to issue a second invitation to Moscow to participate in the forthcoming economic conference. The first invitation was declined because the conference was to be held on Swiss soil.

Constructing Fast Submarine

Rome. — An attempt to cross from Europe to the United States in fifty hours by means of an especially constructed submersible boat is to be made late this year by Ettore Bugatti, owner of an automobile factory in Alsace, France.

FIX RAIL RATES THAT WILL HELP CANADIAN TRADE

Ottawa. — The order-in-council under which the Board of Railway Commissioners are conducting an inquiry into freight rates required the commission to fix just and reasonable rates that would encourage and develop Canadian trade.

However, A. Fraser, K.C., counsel for the Canadian National Railways, insisted this did not for a moment suggest that the present rates were unjust or unreasonable when they received the approval of the board.

Conditions were constantly changing, Mr. Fraser said, and what was fair and just at some period in the past might need adjusting now. This was what the board was now called upon to consider.

Some discussion arose between Deputy Chief Commissioner Vien and counsel as to exactly what were the limitations of the powers of the Governor-General in council to issue instructions to the board as to the lines upon which they should proceed in the adjustment of rates. It was agreed that the commissioners were the sole judges of what would be fair and just rates, subject to appeal to the Governor-General in council and His Excellency's powers of review were wide, almost to the degree of being arbitrary.

It was further agreed that an order-in-council might be set forth giving certain principles for the guidance of the Railway Board, but if those principles could be shown to be in conflict with the provisions of the Railway Act the order-in-council would have to go.

Intends to Attempt Trans-Atlantic Flight

French War Ace Plans to Make Trip in September

New York. — Captain Rene Fonck, French war ace, has arrived from France. He expressed sorrow over the death of Lieut. Commander Noel Davis and Lieut. Stanton H. Wooster in Virginia, and announced that regardless of how many fliers might precede him across the Atlantic, he would attempt to fly from New York to Paris in September.

Captain Fonck said the plane he will use will be completed at College Point, L.I., in July and will be a duplicate of the biplane which was burned up with a loss of two lives when taking off last September.

Despite tragedies the backers of the Bellanca plane, which recently established a new world's endurance record, have announced they are practically ready to hop off for Paris.

This plane, in which Clarence D. Chamberlain and Bert Acosta stayed in the air almost 52 hours, is the most serious contender in the race.

The accident to the Davis machine has not slowed up preparations for its flight.

Washington, D.C. — For the first time in history a Canadian Mounted policeman in full regiments attended the funeral of a United States citizen on United States soil.

Sergeant-Maj. Richard Urtoff, a native of Baltimore, who served in the Canadian forces throughout the war, was buried here and Corporal Hugh Lamont, attached to the Canadian legation, attended the funeral.

Mr. Massey, the Canadian minister, was represented by his private secretary, A. T. Stone. The coffin was draped with the United States and Canadian flags. Stone laid a wreath on the coffin.

CANADA'S JUBILEE.

The celebration of the diamond jubilee of Confederation to be held on Dominion Day, July 1st, is now fast arousing the interest and enthusiasm of the people of Canada. The event will be observed with more than the usual loyalty, and it is expected that every town will arrange and carry out a program suited to the day.

Recognizing the importance of the occasion, a large number of Alberta towns have already held meetings and arranged committees to settle detail, and one may assume Didsbury will do the same.

As the day will be one of general rejoicing, efforts might well be made to secure the co-operation of both town and country. This co-operation could no doubt be achieved through a public meeting at which representatives of the various country districts would be present.

The celebration will be one that should call forth special efforts on the part of every resident, and its commemoration be regarded as a loyal duty.

Had they gotten mother's slipper
At the proper time and place.

Friends of Mrs. W. Leadbetter will regret to hear of an accident which she sustained last week by falling down the basement steps. Her right shoulder and arm were badly bruised and, in addition, she received a fracture of two ribs. She is, however, now progressing very favorably.

E. K. Pratt is having his house, barn and other outbuildings painted this week. A Bolander is engaged likewise. A good example. New paint not only enhances the appearance of the farm but in preserving the buildings it is economy practiced in one of the best forms.

The Rosebud Groceteria, located opposite the C.P.R. depot, and started last year as a business venture by M. Weber, was sold by him last week to the Jenkins Groceteria, with headquarters in Calgary. The new firm will assume the management about the middle of the month.

Announcement is made this week of the purchase by the Midland Grain Co. of Calgary of the elevator owned by M. Weber, located alongside the C.P.R. track at the south end of town.

This elevator was built in 1911, but for the last four years has been rented by the company which has now acquired it by purchase.

Having disposed of his groceteria, M. Weber announces that he will conduct a discount sale till the middle of May. Those having coupons from this store should bring them in not later than May 14th.

Opportunities come and go, whether it's the fall or "good old spring-time." The main thing, claims Morgan Cressman, is to seize your chance and make the most of it. Last week he threshed seventy-five acres, and the grade is better than that obtained last fall. He still has forty acres more to cut and six more stacks to thresh. He sums it all up with the opinion that, "this is a fine country where a fellow can thresh any old time of the year and take his grain to the elevator."

The word from Mr. Speakman, M. P., in hospital at Ottawa is uneventful, but he drags on disappointingly slow.—Red Deer Advocate.

Who was the boy? Hesitating in front of a suspicious looking stretch of mud on the south road the other day, an autoist was approached by a little boy.

"You can drive in if you want to, Mister," said the young business man. "Farmer Jones is waiting to haul you out for five dollars, but if you'll give me a dollar, I'll show you a good way around."

Apparently, Didsbury is being regarded more and more as the logical stopping point between Red Deer and Calgary. In addition several concerns which have already made this town their headquarters, now comes the announcement of a motor express delivery which has been established between here and Calgary. This service was commenced last week by Mr. G. H. Owen, who with Mrs. Owen has now taken up his residence here. Mr. Owen started a week ago with one delivery truck and so well has his service been appreciated that he has now been compelled to add another. His phone No. is 68.

W. Pitt, one of our local contractors, has been awarded the contract for erecting the new school-house at Westdale. Work will be commenced on the structure as soon as weather conditions permit.

Make your farm pay bigger profits this year

The big problem on the farm today is to produce more at less cost. Farm surveys in Canada show that the largest item in the cost of producing a field crop is the labor of man and horse, amounting in some cases to as high as 50%.

The most effective means of reducing labor costs to a minimum is the adoption of economical, light weight tractor power and modern machinery which will result in the doubling or trebling of present crop production—with greater ease and timeliness.

In Canada today, over 17,000 Fordson owners can plow 5 to 8 acres daily, double disc 15 to 25 acres, cultivate 15 to 25 acres, harrow up to 50 acres, cut 20 to 35 acres of grain and thresh 700 to 1100 bushels of wheat.

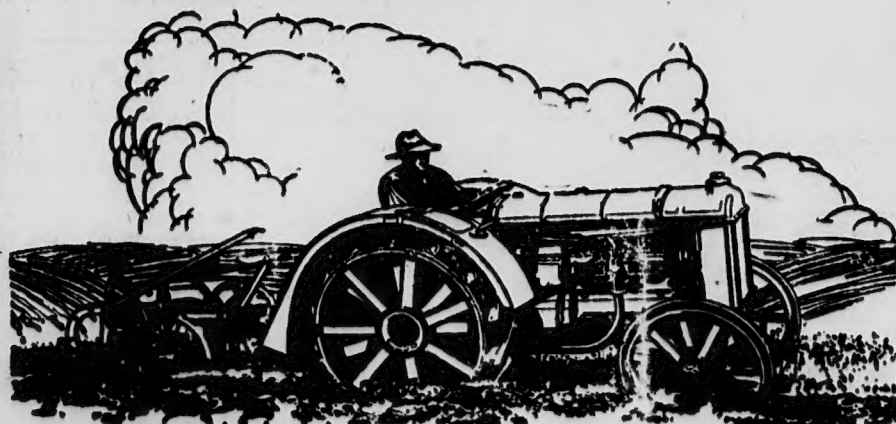

Reduce your labor costs the Fordson way and make your farm pay bigger profits this year.

Operations of the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert Terminal

The Alberta Wheat Pool has loaded twenty-two ships with wheat from the 1926 crop at Prince Rupert and expects to bring the total up to twenty-four before the crop movement is ended this spring.

The Alberta Pool terminal at Rupert has already handled 5,158,000 bushels and the total will reach 5,788,000 bushels within a few weeks. This is a larger total than was anticipated last fall.

The Prince Rupert house was built and is owned by the Canadian Government, has a capacity of 1,250,000 bushels and is probably the fastest handling terminal on the coast. It is under lease to the Alberta Pool for a term of two years. Joseph Bennett is superintendent of this elevator.

Through the Pool's extensive operation, the ocean freight differential has disappeared and grain is shipped to Europe from Prince Rupert at the same rate as from Vancouver.

Of the twenty-four ships already loaded or committed, six carried grain to the Orient and eighteen to Europe.

Previous to the Pool leasing the Rupert terminal, no wheat had been shipped from that port.

Smart Little Ones Go Simply Clad

Dressing the tiny Miss of two to eight is no less an art than providing lovely clothes for her mother or older sister. One of the prettiest and simplest frocks any little girl could have is pictured here, and one which busy mothers can make up in a very short time, for it just has a group of shirtings either side of the front and in the centre back. A simple chain stitch of colored silk floss is worked over each row of gathers, lending a bright touch, and holding the fullness firmly in place. Shirtings are again seen on the wrists of the full sleeves and pockets, while two-piece bloomers make this a most practical dress. No. 1434 is in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards 56-inch material; or 1 1/2 yards 54-inch. 20 cents.

RHEUMATIC MISERY

Relief Can Only Come Through Better Blood—Liniments of No Use

In no other disease does the blood become thin so rapidly as in rheumatism. Not only does it become thin but it is loaded with impurities—rheumatic poisons. Without the proper treatment these poisons increase, the inflamed joints swell and the patient becomes a cripple. Most treatments simply aim to keep down the pain, hence with every unfavorable condition a renewed attack follows.

To cast out rheumatism the blood must be enriched and the rheumatic poisons driven out with the natural secretions of the body. This can best be done through a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which have a specific action on the blood, giving it new richness and redness. Thou sands have tried this treatment with beneficial results. That every sufferer from rheumatism who does not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery is shown by the statement of Mr. David Carroll, Picton, N.S., who says:—"For years I was troubled with rheumatism. The pains were not continuous, but they always returned, and kept getting worse. I tried so-called electric belts and many medicines, but did not get more than temporary relief. Only those who have suffered from this trouble will realize what I suffered at times. I had begun to despair of getting better when a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In a short time I could feel this medicine helping me so I gladly continued taking the pills and soon found that every trace of the trouble had disappeared and there was a great improvement in my general health. It is now two years since I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I have not had the least twinge of the trouble in that time. That is why I confidently recommend the pills to other sufferers."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MAY 8

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD

Golden Text: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."—1 Peter 1:3.

Lesson: John 20: 1-10; 21: 1-23.

Explanations and Comments

1. Mary Magdalene's Discovery at the Tomb of Christ, John 20: 1, 2.—A stone had been placed over the entrance of the tomb in which the body of the crucified Saviour had been laid (Mark 15: 46, and the stone had been sealed (Matthew 27: 66). The stone was probably a cylindrical one which could be rolled aside in a groove at the base of the opening of the tomb. Early on Sunday morning Mary Magdalene came to the tomb with the others, as the "we" in the next verse indicates. She found the stone removed. At once she hastened to tell Peter and John (John always refers to himself in his Gospel as "the disciple whom Jesus loved"). "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him," she cried.

"The Catholic, who cannot find the grace in these Easter days to have the stone rolled back, whether it be pride, greed, or pleasure, that keeps him tombed in his own selfishness, is certainly wasting the graces of Easter."—Catholic Standard and Times.

II. Peter and John at the Tomb of Christ, John 20: 3-10.—The two disciples ran to the tomb. John reached there first and, looking in reverently and wonderingly where the Saviour's body had rested, he beheld only the linen cloths in which it had been wrapped. Then impetuous Peter rushed into the tomb and saw a wonderful thing; the linen cloths which had enveloped Christ's body were rolled up and the napkin, which had been about his head, was in another place. Lelsurely and orderly had been Christ's departure. Had others carried off his body, the grave clothes would not have been left. Then John also entered the tomb, and the sight sufficed him; he believed that Christ was risen. "A heart full of love for Christ requires but little proof to find in him a living Lord. The apostle of love was the first person to believe in the risen Christ, and he it was who afterwards recorded that beatitude which fell from the lips of his living Lord, a beatitude the blessedness of which he was the first to know and in which we all now share, 'Blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.'"—C. R. Erdman.

Make Mendicancy An Art

Beggars in France All Carry Manual of Instructions

Mendicancy is an art in France, and Gallic beggars have a "Manual for the Use of Beggars" to instruct them in the art.

The book, which includes a "sucker list" of good prospects, emerged from the pocket of a beggar when a Paris judge admired his knowledge of humanity.

"Why, it's an art," exclaimed the beggar, drawing forth the textbook in explanation.

Most of the chapters are devoted to technical instruction, such as how to operate at baptisms, marriages, funerals and the methods of attracting sympathetic attention.

There is instruction in how to seem blind, simulation of certain ailments, faking of suicide attempts and the concealment of legs or arms for displacement by false ones.

Record Building Activity

Indications are that building in Canada will be more active than it has been for several years. For the first three months of the year there is proposed construction amounting to $208,132,000, which is actually 44 per cent. higher than the total in sight at the corresponding period of 1926. The lead is taken by residential contracts, which is a natural result of the upward trend of business that has been noted for many months past.

Again Brandon smiled weakly, and indicated the bandages. "She is to blame for that. But I do not think she will give an alarm. That will await the men you left in the barn. The police will not be concerned much, when you have returned to them the plunder you collected. When you have sent them that, you will be as I said—paid double."

The expression on the face of the club house official who had heard the cryptic conversation began to show a gleam of understanding—a curious understanding of the hold-up which had sent the group of half hysterical women back to his hospitalities. Antoine noted and shifted, uneasily. Brandon too, alert despite his pain, saw. He called the man to the couch:

"Do not be concerned by the little drama in the mist tonight," he said, between his laborious breathings. "Your patrons who were robbed will receive their valuables, I have reason to believe. They will be none the worse for their experience. They may not know of it, of course, but they played their parts tonight in a great adventure."

Meanwhile, Joanna, her wrap unfastened again, her slim hands gripped to the wheel of the gray car, fought her way along the narrow road. When she rounded a turn just above the village of La Turbie little pin points of light shone up. Far down out over the sea, the light-house at the base of Cap Martin glowed like a far away eye of the night. The mist was lifting before the threat of dawn. Beyond La Turbie the country, although chaotic, was visible. The lamps along the sea boulevard were discernible.

The thought of Kenilworth, still captive with the other men in the hidden barn of the bandits, bothered her for a moment. An impulse came to turn around and, with the road partially clear, now, feel her way back to the hut she was certain she would recognize. She could, she considered, pick up someone at La Turbie to help her awaken the countryside. She decided against this plan, however, settled back behind her wheel, and shot into high speed.

The grounds of Villa Amette were vapored by the rising dampness of the dissipating mist. A solitary light, near the entrance gate, gleamed dimly. As she guided the car along the winding road to the house among the vague, gray shapes of the arbors and pergolas and pavilions which, in another few hours, were to be a blazing, fantastic background for her brilliant and lavish fete—the fete of the Golden Girl, and, also, her Swan Song! For Brandon had said "I am the one!" and he had said, too, "Whatever you have is to be taken from you. There shall be no more money!"

When she drew up in front of a side entrance to the villa she saw that the house itself was also dark. She considered whether or not to summon a servant with her horn, and decided to leave the car in the roadway and go in quietly. She ached for the aloneness of her room—the room which through the great golden bed.

At the ponderous villa doors she was troubled by the thought that she had never found it necessary to carry any sort of key. Servants always awaited her return, but they had to be summoned by the bell. She tried the door, however, and found that it was unfastened. She closed it softly behind her and felt her way across a tiny reception room to a draped arch that opened into a secluded drawing room. Across this room would be the grand hall from which a stairway led to the upper floors. When she was almost up to the heavy, double drapes which hung in the arched door that opened into the bigger room she stopped, suddenly. Between the curtains a line of light shone. She heard murmur of voices. Convinced that it would be servants, awaiting her perhaps, she pushed the curtains aside and stepped into the room. Then she stood, fascinated.

The voices swelled as the curtains parted. One of them she recognized as Yvonne's; the other, John's. And at the far end of the room she saw them, before the gentle glow in the fireplace, the only illumination in the room. Yvonne, gorgeous and Circé-like, her sinuous body wrapped in the sense destroying hues of rich red burgundy, her only ornaments dazzling diamonds that glistened like a myriad of consuming fires in the gentle firelight glow, leaned forward in a cushioned, gilded chair. And at her feet—at "satin slippers never worn by Joanna's feet," as Brandon had taunted her—was John!

For one brief instant the thing before her muddled, and assumed a contorted shape. Then the smolder in the fireplace burst into a flame of hell, and died again into something that flared as a grotesque mockery. Joanna's wrap fell from her shoulders. Her little hands dug into her breasts, but gave the senseless body no pain. The little figure in black stood, then, utterly lost to everything thought but of what she saw—and heard.

"I have never known love until now! All else has just been a chimera. It is you who have shown what love's glory is! Please my wonderful dear, will you take me in—and comfort me."

John's voice, that was; John! Passion and pleading and humility, in it. All those nuances of adoration, submission, hope and prayer and yearning that Joanna had never heard in it.

Now, Yvonne's low, silvery cadences, infinitely sweet, and—infinitely soothing:

"Are you content—will you be content—to accept from me the love that is the only kind that I may give you? The love that has blossomed and withered so many, many times? Mine can never be a pure love, my friend. And I may never promise its constancy. It is the crown that you may wear only while you can defend, and keep it. That is what is said of me, and my love, my dear, and I must not say to you that what is said is untrue. If we love, you and I, and if I give to you the portion I may spare you, you must be content. It can never be a holy love—there must always be something wanton in it. It must be the kind we take and put aside. Will that then, satisfy you?"

He crept closer to her. She put her hands about his face, warm, mesmeric hands. Her rich, soft, round lips—lips that were a sign of all love-madness since the world began—went down to his. Then it was John's voice again:

"There can be no other love as wonderful as you can give. In any way that I may have it, if it be pure or defiled, I want it!"

A scream, a torrent of them, a frenzy of them, surged to Joanna's lips—and halted there. It was Yvonne who rose, slowly, sinuously gracefully, Joanna saw, as if it were some strange, fantastic symbol taking form at the rim of a distant horizon, a smile, a faintly lined, queer, and flitting smile, at Yvonne's red lips. And John saw, and got to his feet, sense-dazed and marvelling. Again that low, soft, silvery cadence of Yvonne:

"What a poor, damnable thing you are, my friend! Go preach, my dear Preach to Joanna; preach to the heart and the soul and the wonder of her! Preach—but do it on your knees and take your text from the lesson I've taken the trouble to give you. Tell her that you've learned, at last, that you're only make-believe—you and all your kind. Tell her that if she'll have you, you'll try to learn from her the sort of thing her kind can teach."

John's voice, then, but Joanna didn't hear. She stumbled blindly back through the curtains.

Little Helps For This Week

Add to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity.—2 Peter 1, 7.

O brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother,
Where pity dwells the peace of God is there;
To worship rightly is to love each other,—
Each smile a hymn, each kindly word a prayer.

—John Greenleaf Whittier

As the rays come from the sun, and yet are not the sun, even so our love and pity, though they are not God, but merely a poor, weak image and reflection of Him, yet from Him alone they come. If there is mercy in our hearts, it comes from the Fountain of Mercy. If there is the light of love in us, it is a ray from the full sun of love.

—Charles Kingsley.

"The Confederation"

Name Given to New Canadian National Train Commemorates Canada's Diamond Jubilee

An important extension of Canadian National Railways passenger train service between Eastern Canada and the Pacific Coast, is announced by H. H. Melanson, general passenger traffic manager of the System. Under a new schedule which becomes effective on June 24th, from Toronto, and June 27th from Vancouver, trains No. 3 and No. 4, now operating between Winnipeg and Toronto only, under the name of "The National" will operate between Toronto and Vancouver on a 93-hour schedule westbound and 91 hours and 10 minutes schedule eastbound. It was announced also that in honor of Canada's diamond jubilee, the trains under the new service will bear the title of "The Confederation."

These trains operate with the latest type all-steel equipment, including tourist and standard sleepers, dining cars and radio-equipped observation library cars, and have proven very popular with passengers between Toronto and Western Canada points since their inception. On the new schedule, the trains will carry a mountain observation car between Kamloops and Vancouver, and will thus provide passengers with the opportunity of seeing the beauties of the famous Fraser River canyons en route.

An important change in the routing of "The Confederation" across the prairie provinces is also announced. Under the new schedule these trains will operate via Brandon, Manitoba, and Regina, Saskatchewan, thus giving through service to these important cities in the west.

A Use for Everything

Australia Making Millions Out of Jack Rabbit Pest

Australia once upon a time frantically wondered what it would do with the jack rabbit pest. These ferocious creatures ate up all the crops in sight. A government bounty was put on them. Then it was found that rabbit hides were good for material to build felt hats. Last year the pelts of 78,000,000 jacks brought $12,500,000 into Australia. There seems nothing so useless on earth but that it has real value. Some day we expect some genius will discover a use for moth holes.

? -- Times One Pound

Multiply one lb. by the number of sheep you have. The answer is the extra wool you get by machine shearing. Have you 15 sheep? Why not begin now to get 15 lbs. more wool every season? Have you 500 sheep? You'll lose 500 lbs. of wool every time you shear with the old, slow and tedious hand blades. Machine shears evenly—gets longer staple wool which brings better price, sheep injured less. Anyone can use machine.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM. This is a condition (for diagnosis) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—breakdown, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour, vital strength and energy to throw off these morbid feelings, and as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPION No. 3.

Mrs. Sophie Salway of 135 Wilson St., Woodstock, Ont., (picture above) said: "I had had an operation and was expecting to have to undergo another. I was in a very poor state of health—was weak, it seemed that all my strength had left me. I could not do anything. It was quite necessary that I have a good tonic to make me strong enough for my second operation so I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it soon had me well and strong, and I came thru the operation without any trouble. Several other members of my family have taken the 'Golden Medical Discovery' with equally good results and all have words of praise for it."

Alberta's Big Future.

A picture of the Alberta coal fields being turned into oil and piped all the way to Toronto and the east in the next years was drawn by Prof. J. C. McLennan, of the University of Toronto, at the luncheon of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association

Thursday, when he advocated an intensified campaign of scientific research.

"It's possible to turn the whole coal fields in Alberta into oil and pipe it down to Toronto," said the professor. "The same thing applies to Nova Scotia. It is possible to make Alberta and Nova Scotia two of the richest provinces in Canada."

Church Announcements EVANGELICAL NOTES.

Mother's Day will be observed on Sunday. Come and bring a friend.

"Most of all the other beautiful things in life come by twos and threes, by dozens and hundreds! Plenty of roses, stars, sunsets and rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, but only one MOTHER in all the wide world."

Conference echoes—Rev. L. H. Wagner, P.E., superintendent of missions of the Ev. church in Northwest Canada from Winnipeg to the Rockies for the last 19 years is retiring from this strenuous position to a local pastorate in Listowel, Ont. His frequent visits and familiar face will now be greatly missed in nearly every town of the west. His successor in office has not yet been appointed.

By action of the recent annual conference held in Sebringville, Ont., the entire North West district is now become a separately organized conference of the Ev. church. The honorary privilege of entertaining this first annual conference is to be conferred upon the Ev. congregation here in Didsbury on June 23-26, 1927.

Rev. Albert Clemens a former pastor here is now appointed to our city-church in Stratford, Ont.

Bishops Stamm and Maze will be the presiding officers at the June conference session referred to above.

Concerning the North-west district no pastoral changes were ordered for this Conference.

KNOX and WESCOTT

Sunday, May 8th, is Mother's Day. Observe Mother's Day in spirit, not in mere ostentation. This is the plea made by the Mother's Day International Association, as the whole world prepares to celebrate the beautiful, new international occasion.

Doing something for mother's joy, not mere flower wearing alone is the object. "There is only one thing important on this day of days," says Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, founder of Mother's Day, and that is to remember mother.

"Go home and see her if you are in another town. Take her some present. If you can't do that, write her a letter or send a telegram.

Observance of this day has spread to all parts of Europe and to Japan, China, Africa and Palestine.

QUAIL DOES ITS BEST TO HATCH GOLF BALL

VICTORIA, B.C., April 30.—Game birds so appreciate the efforts of M. B. Jackson, K.C., chairman of the Game Conservation Board, to conserve them that a sagacious quail hen seized upon a golf ball at the Oak Bay golf links here, with Mr. Jackson's name on it and tried to hatch this unappreciative addition to its nest.

A caddie in search of lost balls came across this remarkable demonstration of bird wisdom this week. Hidden away in the broom which grows along the edge of the Oak Bay fairway, he discovered a nest of eighteen valley quail eggs. In the midst of them was a rather hard-boiled looking member of the potential family, which on closer examination turned out to be a golf ball. But, more amazing still, the ball bore the name of Mr. Jackson.

The importation of the ball into the family circle of the quail had produced disastrous results. Many of the other eggs had been broken by this unwelcome addition to the collection, so that Mr. Jackson's efforts to conserve game in this case had proved somewhat futile.

RATS TREKKING WESTWARD HAVE REACHED QU'APPELLE

The common rat, which during the past nine months has been steadily advancing across the North American continent from east to west, is now reported as far as Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, where he has established himself in serious numbers. A few years ago there were none of these rodents in the prairie provinces, but today they constitute a formidable menace in Manitoba, and are so serious in Eastern Saskatchewan that steps have been taken by several municipalities to combat them.

While rats are a big nuisance and a source of considerable loss in the East, their presence in the West will constitute a more serious menace. There is, of course, a great deal more grain, produced in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta than in the East, and much of it is not well protected against attacks by these pests.

A lady missionary was accustomed to visit the Chinese quarter of a large western city. She was zealous. Her converts were many. Calling on a Chinese laundry one day, she noticed that one of her proselytes was missing. "Where is Sam today?" she asked. "Him sick," was the curt retort of a fellow Celestial. "Christian gentleman hit him on head with brick."
